FOREWORD

'Integrity' is not a new thing. It has been in existence and evolved over centuries. It evolved through our thinking, belief systems, emotions and behaviours. 'Integrity' is something that is often heard – "The act of doing the right things when no one is watching" – familiar? It is so impactful, so meaningful to any person or any organisation should it be embraced and translated into more impactful actions leading to remarkable outcomes. There are many things that are associated with the word 'Integrity' such as keeping your words, making judgment call, honesty, being consistent, moral etc.

At Yayasan Peneraju, we are in the 'business' of investing towards talent development, specifically Malaysian talents and in doing so, we develop the nation. We invest so that Malaysia has great talents to build our beloved country. When we deal with such delicate and serious subject, for the love of the country and the next generation of leaders, we have so much at stake. We should ask ourselves "What kind of Malaysia would I want to leave my kids, my grandkids in when I leave the world? A clean country or otherwise?". The choice is clear. Actions definitely speak louder than words.

We believe and expect that our staff, scholars, business partners etc to embrace and uphold the highest level of integrity at all times. It should be embedded into Malaysia's work culture and it is something that we should be proud of. This Code of Business Ethics is designed to serve as a guideline towards achieving the desired integrity level. While in Yayasan Peneraju we have our Code of Conduct for our staff, this Code of Business Ethics is designed for our business partners.

My final words, let's together, deliver our mandate at our utmost level best! And for me, 'Integrity' is simply "If it is not right, just don't do it, if it is not true, just don't say it". Remember, integrity starts from you.

Thank you.

Mohd Ariff Ithnin
Acting Chief Executive Officer, Yayasan Peneraju
